

Jubiläumstreffen "70 Jahre Bugatti-Club Deutschland Declaration of commitment

1. During the event, the participants, i.e. the drivers, co-drivers and other accompanying persons as well as vehicle owners and/or registered vehicle keepers and helpers (for instance helpers attending to the vehicle) (hereinafter referred to as: "participants") undertake to comply with all statutory provisions that need to be observed during the operation of a vehicle in public road traffic. This concerns in particular the specifications of the StVO (German Road Traffic Ordinance) and the StVZO (German Road Traffic Licensing Ordinance) and comprises the obligation to exclusively use vehicles that have been licensed for road traffic and are in an unrestrictedly roadworthy condition.

By submitting the entry form or on arrival at the event, participants confirm that

- they have a valid driving licence for road traffic in the EU for the vehicle to be driven
- they have taken out motor vehicle liability insurance with cover of at least 1 million euros.
- the registered vehicle is authorised for European road traffic.

- 1.1. Notwithstanding the obligation under point 1, participants shall comply with all rules and instructions issued by the organiser.

Disclaimer of warranty

2. With their registration for the event, the participants declare their waiver of all claims for any type of damage arising during this event or standing in connection with this event from a temporal, spatial or content point of view.
- 2.1 This disclaimer of warranty shall apply vis-à-vis the Bugatti-Club Deutschland e.V., its institutions, any person incorporated in the planning, organisation, transaction and processing of this event, vis-à-vis other participants as well as vis-à-vis authorities and organisations as well as vis-à-vis all representatives, assistants and vicarious agents of the above-mentioned natural and legal persons and authorities.
- 2.2 The disclaimer of warranty shall apply to any claims for whatever legal reason. This comprises in particular claims for damages arising on the basis of contractual regulations and agreements as well as due to tortious acts (criminal offences).
- 2.3 The disclaimer of warranty shall not comprise any damages due to injuries to life, body and health as well as any injuries based on deliberate or grossly negligent neglect of duty by the group of persons according to item 2.1. benefitting from the disclaimer of warranty.

3. Responsibility of the participant

The participants are aware that they are participating at their own risk in this event and that they bear the sole responsibility for all damages according to civil law and according to criminal law caused by them or by the vehicle used by them.

4. Rights of the organiser

- 4.1 Bugatti-Club Deutschland e.V. shall be entitled to effect all changes to the announcement and transaction of the event caused by force majeure or necessary for safety reasons or ordered by the authorities or to cancel the event in part or in whole, without being exposed to claims for damages through this. This comprises in particular the reimbursement of travelling costs, hotel costs, refunding of the nomination fee or of any expenses incurred in another manner, for example in relation to the vehicle.
- 4.2 The exclusion of claims according to item 4.1 shall not take effect if the reason for the above-mentioned measures is a deliberately negligent or grossly negligent behaviour on the part of the organiser or any persons acting on this behalf.

5. Registration and declaration on behalf of third parties

- 5.1 On submission of their registration, the registered participants shall declare that they are entitled and authorised to make the above declarations, including those in respect of the disclaimer of warranty, also on behalf of further participants enrolled by the registering participant or actually involved participants according to item 1.
- 5.2 If contrary to item 5.1 the declaration of a registering participant on behalf of the participants who do not make their own declaration is ineffective, the declaring participant shall be liable to indemnify the group of persons benefitting from the declarations from any claims to which it will be exposed for this reason.
